Sheridan County Bylaws

Article III

Section 6. Officers and Terms of Office

6.4. Officer Incompatibility.

a. No person may serve as County Chairman, Vice Chairman, State Committeeman, State Committeewoman, County Secretary, County Treasurer, or as chair of any standing or special committee of the County Central Committee who, during his or her term of office:

(1) Is a declared candidate for any public office that appears on a partisan or nonpartisan election ballot;

(2) Holds any public office filled by election at the federal, state, county, or municipal level; or

(3) Serves as a member of the press, defined as an employee, contractor, on-air talent, or regular contributor for any news outlet, broadcast station, newspaper, news website, or other organized media entity that reports on public affairs in Wyoming.

b. A person serving in any office covered by subsection 6.4(a) who, after election or appointment, declares as a candidate for public office, is appointed to or sworn into any public office, or accepts engagement as a member of the press as defined above, shall be deemed to have automatically resigned his or her Party office at the moment of such filing, appointment, swearing-in, or acceptance. Any vacancy created under this subsection shall be filled as otherwise provided in these bylaws.
