ON THE ISSUES

The answers below were solicited from candidates via a written questionnaire created by WyoFile reporters and editors in June 2026. Responses are presented exactly as submitted, without fact-checking, wordsmithing or editing for grammar, punctuation or spelling errors.

Legislative candidates were invited to respond to the questionnaire several times by email and by phone. Out of fairness to the candidates who met the deadline, WyoFile will not add responses after the guide's publication.

Correction: Due to a technical error, an earlier version of this page displayed responses from a different candidate with the same last name. —Ed.

Where do you live currently? How long have you lived there? How long have you lived in Wyoming? Where were you born?

No candidate response.

What age will you be on Election Day, Nov. 3, 2026?

No candidate response.

Please tell the voters about yourself including your background and qualifications.

No candidate response.

What are the biggest challenges and opportunities facing Wyoming today? As a legislator, how would you address them?

No candidate response.

We asked WyoFile readers to rank issues that are important to them, and healthcare costs and access topped the list. What can the Legislature do to make healthcare more affordable and accessible to Wyomingites?

No candidate response.

Do you support efforts to sell or transfer public land in Wyoming? How do you plan to ensure that state and federal land is managed in the best interest of the people of Wyoming?

No candidate response.

No two Wyoming counties are the same when it comes to how they generate revenue. As a legislator, how would you approach the public's desire for property tax relief with local revenue needs?

No candidate response.

What role, if any, should the Wyoming Legislature play in economic development?

No candidate response.

Explain your values when it comes to campaign donations. Does Wyoming's system for monitoring campaign donations and expenditures need reform?

No candidate response.
