I move that the Teton County Republican Party adopt this Resolution of the Teton County Republican Party Regarding Standards of Conduct and Decorum Censure

WHEREAS decorum—defined by the Merriam-Webster dictionary as conduct characterized by propriety, dignity, and respect appropriate to the setting—is a foundational expectation in formal public and legislative proceedings; and

WHEREAS adherence to standards of decorum helps maintain credibility, effectiveness, and public trust in governmental and civic institutions, including the proceedings of the Wyoming Legislature; and

WHEREAS A committee of the Wyoming Legislature acknowledged that conduct occurring on the House floor during the 2026 Legislature involving the Teton County State Committeewoman was undesirable and should not occur again; and, the Governor of Wyoming with exceptional speed signed an Executive Order to explicitly prohibit behavior she exhibited from ever occurring again in the Capitol Building.

WHEREAS elected leaders of the Teton County Republican Party are entrusted with responsibilities comparable to fiduciary obligations commonly recognized in board governance, including duties of care, loyalty, and service to the organization and its members; and

WHEREAS the conduct at issue has resulted in public and media attention involving the Teton County Republican Party; and

WHEREAS the Party believes that those who serve in elected leadership positions represent not only themselves but also the reputation, principles, and effectiveness of the organization.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Teton County Republican Party formally censures the conduct of its State Central Committeewoman during the legislative proceedings referenced above; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this censure affirms the expectation that all elected officers and representatives of the Teton County Republican Party choose to conduct themselves with decorum, honesty, integrity, loyalty, and care when acting in public or official capacities; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Teton County Republican Party reaffirms its commitment to traditional values and principles that promote responsible leadership, respect for institutions, constructive civic engagement, and freedom of speech.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Party expresses its disappointment that the circumstances surrounding this matter may have adversely affected legislative efforts that were of importance to many members of the community.

Adopted this ____ day of _____, 2026, by the Teton County Republican Party.
